

QUICK INFO SHEET: Zhu Guiqin (朱桂芹)

Zhu Guiqin, female, born 1963-01-29.

Zhu is a long-time petitioner and activist based out of Fushun city, Liaoning province, who since undergoing extensive torture in a Re-education Through Labor camp in 2004-2007 and 2009-2010, have been working to stop torture of inmates in labour camps. She has been detained and harassed multiple times over the years, and been incarcerated in black jails twice, as well as detained in a mental institution. She is currently, as of March 12, 2011, detained in a black jail because trying to petition during the Two Congresses, and is launching an administrative lawsuit against the labour camp where she was tortured.

For detailed information on Zhu Guiqin see <http://China-Action.org>, the case file or (if available) Urgent Appeal, all of which can be found on our website.

PARTICULARS

- Incident related to lawsuit: Extensive torture at Ma San Jia Re-education Through Labor camp (马三家教养院) 2004-03-17 to 2007-03-16 and 2009-05-27 to 2010-05-26.
- Lawsuit based on which laws: Primarily article 248 of the Chinese Criminal Law
- Current status: Charge letter sent to People's Procuratorate
- Lawsuit target(s): Wang Yanping (王彦平), Yang Jian (杨健)

ABOUT THE CHINESE URGENT ACTION WORKING GROUP

The Chinese Urgent Action Working Group (人权卫士紧急救援协会) undertakes direct interventions on behalf of Human Rights defenders in distress through investigations, public advocacy, communication with international institutions and organizations, and through providing legal aid. The group is located inside mainland China, and was formed as a response to increased persecution of Human Rights defenders during 2008 and 2009. The organization also regularly releases reports and background briefs on issues concerning Human Rights, and especially Human Rights defenders, in China.